

Bergen Evening Record

Week-end Magazine Section

SATURDAY MAY 7, 1960

Four Stars For Mr. Norris

Story Begins On Page 2

ONE of the nation's top magazine illustrators, Paul C. Burns of Westwood (left), joins artist Norris in gab session in latter's drawing room in his Hillsdale home. They are close friends.

NORRIS children, Mike (left) and Reed, are model plane enthusiasts, parents look on as the two boys exhibit their latest work projects

Copyright 1933, King Features Syndicate Inc.

ARTIST Norris has his featured performer, "Brick Bradford", seeking a Brook trout in North Bergen's Pascack Creek in the drawing above. After all, even an adventure strip star has need of some relaxation.

LAMP on table beside Ann Morris was made by her husband. Lamp base is of highly polished walnut; it originally was to be a railroad tie

HERE'S the comic propaganda leaflet prepared by Paul, with the help of Jap prisoners, while he was serving with G 2 during World War II.